

LOUISVILLE JOURNAL

THANKSGIVING PROCLAMATION.

COMMONWEALTH OF KENTUCKY,
EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT.

The war that engrossed our country has cost us the blood of brothers, and pierced the bosom of our homes with the anguish of grief, is our; and peace—“gentle peace”—has spread her halmy wings” over all our beloved land.

We this day rejoice in peace restored, and the Government restored.

A kind Providence has added the blessing of abundant harvests.

We may well say, “Then crowned the year with thy goodness; and thy paths drop fatness.”

“The trees are clothed with flowers, the valleys are covered with corn; they shout for joy; they also sing.”

THURSDAY, THE 7th DAY OF DECEMBER, 1863; has been set apart, by proclamation of the President of the United States, as a day of National Thanksgiving. Let all the citizens of Kentucky unite in keeping and observing the day accordingly. “lift up your hands in the advancement of intelligence and freedom for a mankind.”

Given under my hand and the seal of State, at the State Office, in Frankfort, November 7th, 1863. THOS. E. BRAMLETTE, Gov.

By the Governor—E. L. VAN WINKLE,
Secretary of State.

A BROKEN HEART.—The following interesting case of a literally broken heart was related by a late distinguished medical professor of Philadelphia to his class, while lecturing upon disease in the heart. It will be seen on perusing it that the expression “broken heart” is not merely figurative. In a number of his cases that of Robert G. Turner was related to the class.

In testimony whereof, I have hereto set down the case of Robert G. Turner, in the year 1852, to the end of the tenth of January, 1853.

The London Times records that the Lord Mayor of London has received an anonymous letter threatening his early assassination.

THE AGONIES OF LIFE.

THE HISTORY OF THE AGONIES OF LIFE.

COLONEL WILIAM STEWART HAWKINS,
BY J. S. D. SMITH.

DESCRIPTION.

Robert G. Turner is about 35 or 40 years old, & is in the prime of life. He is thin, but in good health, and the sound of a voice that is clear.

And this is Death.

THE AGONIES OF LIFE.

IN HEART AND SPINE.

TO ADOBE, NOT THE WORLDLY KING.

But, when she reached low water,

And when she reached the noble thoughts he gave

Little angewings around the mind did hover.

OH! deathless Death!

Our heart contracted and stricken.

Left the stroke of thy unfeeling hand.

And when she reached the noble thoughts he gave

Little angewings around the mind did hover.

And when she reached the noble thoughts he gave

Little angewings around the mind did hover.

And when she reached the noble thoughts he gave

Little angewings around the mind did hover.

And when she reached the noble thoughts he gave

Little angewings around the mind did hover.

And when she reached the noble thoughts he gave

Little angewings around the mind did hover.
